Overview:

Set off on a captivating journey through Kerala's most enchanting destinations, beginning with the lush hills of Munnar, where you'll marvel at cascading waterfalls and verdant tea gardens. Explore the historical charm and natural beauty of this hill station, once a summer retreat for the British. Continue to Thekkady, home to the renowned Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary, offering thrilling wildlife encounters and cultural performances. Next, immerse yourself in the tranquil backwaters of Alleppey, cruising through serene canals and witnessing the region's timeless beauty. Conclude your adventure with a return to Cochin, carrying memories of Kerala's stunning landscapes and rich cultural heritage. This tour promises an unforgettable blend of nature, history, and serenity in God's Own Country.

Itinerary:

Day 01: Arrival | Cochin – Munnar (4 hrs drive)

Upon your arrival at Cochin airport or Ernakulam railway station, you'll set off on a picturesque four-hour drive to Munnar. Along the way, marvel at the mesmerizing views of Valara and Cheeyappara waterfalls, as well as other scenic wonders. Once in Munnar, check into your hotel and enjoy a restful evening at your leisure. Overnight stay in Munnar.

Day 02: Exploring Munnar

Start your day with a hearty breakfast before heading out to explore the enchanting sights of Munnar, nestled at the confluence of three mountain streams - Kundale, Nallathanni, and Mudrapuzha, and perched 1600 meters above sea level. Once the summer retreat of British officials, this hill station offers numerous attractions. Visit the Tata Tea Museum (closed on Mondays), Mattupetty Dam, Echo Point, and Photo Point. In the afternoon, venture to Rajamalai (Eravikulam National Park) to catch a glimpse of the rare Nilgiri Tahr. Overnight stay in Munnar.

Day 03: Munnar – Thekkady (4 hrs drive)

After a delicious breakfast, check out from your hotel and set off for a scenic drive to Thekkady, approximately four hours away. Upon arrival, check into your hotel and prepare for an adventure-filled afternoon. Explore the Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary, spanning 777 sq. km, including 360 sq. km of dense evergreen forest. Optional activities include boating on Periyar Lake, witnessing a Kathakali or Kalaripayattu (martial art) performance, and touring a spice plantation (all available on direct payment basis). Overnight stay in Thekkady.

Day 04: Thekkady – Alleppey (4 hrs drive)

Following a delightful breakfast, check out and drive to Alleppey, a four-hour journey renowned for its serene backwaters and houseboat cruises. Upon arrival, check into your hotel and unwind before exploring the local attractions: Sree Krishnaswamy Temple, Lighthouse, and Beach. Overnight stay in Alleppey.

Day 05: Alleppey – Cochin | Departure

Savour a final sumptuous breakfast before checking out of your hotel. Set off on a drive back to Cochin Airport or Ernakulam Railway Station, concluding your holiday in God's Own Country.
