Overview:

Discover Georgia's magic on an unforgettable 7-day, 6-night trip around its fascinating cities, breathtaking scenery, and rich cultural treasures. Admire the towering Kazbegi's mountains, explore the vibrant Tbilisi streets, and plunge into the ideal mix of exciting adventure and quiet repose. Prepare yourself for a voyage meant to excite your sense of wonder and motivate your soul!

Itinerary:

Day 1: Arrival in Tbilisi – A Warm Georgian Welcome

Arrive at Tbilisi International Airport, where our friendly staff will greet you and assist with your hotel transfer. Find your first evening free in the vibrant Georgian capital. Investigate the adjacent streets or simply relax at the hotel upon your plane. Overnight in Tbilisi

Day 2: Explore Tbilisi & Day Trip to Sighnaghi – The City of Love

After breakfast, head out for an incredible guided tour of Tbilisi. Explore the enchantment of the Old Town by visiting historic sites including the Narikala Fortress, Metekhi Church, and the famous Bridge of Peace; amble along cobblestone streets decked with pastel houses and balconies. A cable car tour gives expansive city vistas from above.

We head east later to Sighnaghi, a charming little hilltop often referred to as the "City of Love." This dreamy metropolis provides art aficionados and wine connoisseurs a refuge amid defensive defences and perched above the Alazani Valley against the Caucasus Mountains. We also visit the serene Bodbe Monastery, last residence of Georgia's beloved lady evangelist St. Nino. We come back to Tbilisi for the night after a typical Georgian supper.

Day 3: Tbilisi to Kutaisi – Through Ancient Capitals and Cave Cities

We start our trip to Kutaisi, among the oldest cities in Europe, after checkout and breakfast. Along the road, we visit UNESCO World Heritage Site Mtskheta, the spiritual centre of Georgia. Visit both the historic grand Svetitskhoveli Cathedral and the hilltop Jvari Monastery for stunning scenery and amazing historical discoveries.

Featuring an amazing network of tunnels, caverns, and stone architecture from the 6th century BC, Uplistsikhe, an ancient rock-hewn settlement carved into cliffs.

Arriving in Kutaisi, we visit the lively Green Bazaar, a local market filled with fresh food, regional spices, house-made wine, and traditional sweets such as churchkhela. Later, appreciate Bagrati Cathedral's exquisitely restored beauty, a triumph of Georgian design from the 11th century. Overnight stay in Kutaisi.

Day 4: Kutaisi to Batumi – Caves, Castles & the Black Sea Coast

Before departing west toward Batumi, Georgia's coastal treasure, savour a substantial breakfast. Our first destination is the Colchis Fountain in Kutaisi, a homage to the former Colchian kingdom decorated with gold imitations of historic relics.

Then go to the spectacular Prometheus Cave with its subterranean rivers, stalactites, and mood lighting. We also visit Petra Fortress, a Byzantine-era strategic location with breathtaking sea views and great historical importance.

Continue the scenic drive to Batumi, where a city tour awaits. Discover the Batumi Piazza, view the Ali and Nino moving sculpture, and indulge in some shopping in neighbourhood malls. Batumi overnight stay.

Day 5: Batumi Sightseeing – Nature, History & Family Fun

Prepare for a whole day of adventure in Batumi after breakfast. Start with the well-known Batumi Dolphinarium, where dolphins show off their abilities in a lovely aquatic act. Then wander the opulent habitat housing exotic species from all over at Batumi Zoo.

Visit the antique Gonio Fortress in the afternoon; it is a Roman-era structure full with mythology and boasts breathtaking coastal vistas. At Miracle Park, a seaside amusement park with a Ferris wheel and many kid-friendly rides, we end the day. Come back at your hotel to spend the night in Batumi.

Day 6: Batumi to Tbilisi – Wine Tasting in Signaghi & Cultural Stops

Check out after breakfast and start your trip back to Tbilisi, with some noteworthy destinations along the route. First, explore the romantic appeal of Signaghi. Take in the amazing sights from its fortifications, stroll along them, and savour the small-town vibe.

Known not only for its spiritual significance but also for its tranquil, scenic surroundings, the Bodbe Monastery merits another trip. Then, get into Georgia's centuries-old winemaking legacy with a wine tasting event at a historic vineyard. Sample distinctive qvevri wines, made in earthenware jars using a technique recognized by UNESCO. We come back to Tbilisi following a whole day of exploration and luxury. overnight stay in the capital.
